"The Ritual" Connects
the brand altogether

The Problem x Opportunity

MAULI
RITUALS

How do we scale the brand without stripping it of cultural ayurveda, founder led story or sensory engagement
Quantity ≠ Quality

PROBLEMS

- AI assistants describe Mauli without Mauli: named in only 2 of 8 category answers
- The quiz picks by fixed rules, not stock: it recommended a sold-out £244 set
- The first order is near breakeven, with 72% of marketing spend on Meta

OPPORTUNITY

- Mauli surfaces in Ayurveda and dosha prompts: own that territory
- Repeat is the profit engine, and the 54% repeat rate is the base to build on
- Real recorded expertise of Anita and Bittu are the human edge

The Diagnosis

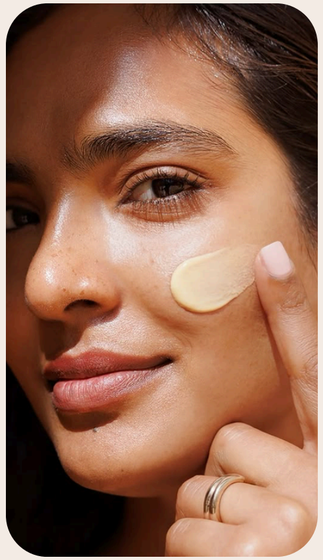
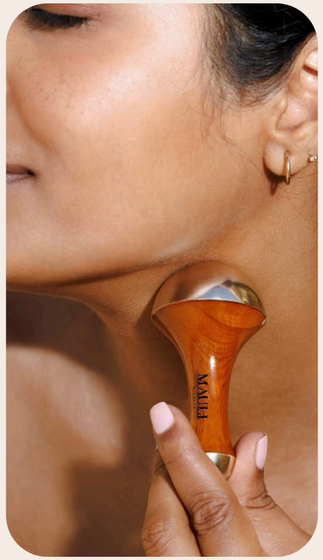
Core Concepts Analysis

WHERE MAULI IS EXPOSED TO ALGORITHMS AND AGENTS



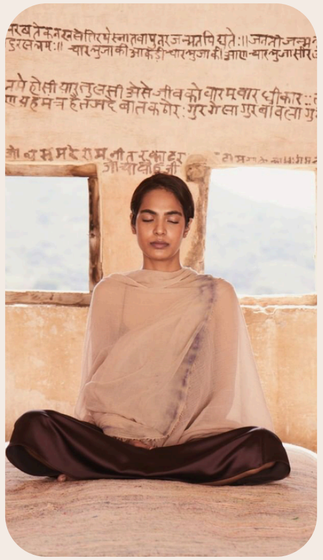
AI describes Mauli without rituals

The quiz ignores stock levels & getting an in-depth analysis



The first order barely breaks even

Attention is misaligned with the brand



Discovery happens before the click

MEANING GETS LOST BETWEEN BRAND AND ALGORITHM

WHERE VALUE SITS

In repeat orders (54%), not first orders

WHERE IT LEAKS

Wrong prices and sold-out picks in AI journeys

Conclusion

MAULI
RITUALS

WHAT WE RECOMMEND

- Extend the ritual before widening the range
- AI performs the ritual, the human voice makes it felt
- Measure repeat and participation, not attention

WHAT IT PROTECTS

- ONE APPROVED RECORD PER RITUAL, PERMITTED CLAIMS ONLY
- NO SYNTHETIC ANITA VOICE, INFLUENCERS OR TESTIMONIALS
- HEALTH QUESTIONS ALWAYS GO TO A PERSON

NEXT 12 MONTHS

- Months 0-3: baselines, claims audit, quiz linked to stock
- Months 3-6: ritual pages, Ritual Profile pilot, community
- Months 6-12: practitioners lead live rituals

From Customer Acquisition to Customer Retention

Reducing paid dependency by strengthening repeat purchases and owned-channel relationships.

The Challenge

- 72% of marketing budget spent on Meta
- Customer acquisition costs up 31%
- 20% discounts reduce profit margins
- High acquisition costs make repeat purchases essential

Our Recommendations

- Personalise: Dosha-based emails, rituals and repurchase reminders
- Connect: Convert Instagram followers into email subscribers through the dosha quiz
- Retain: Replace discounts with exclusive gifts or ritual sets

Strategic Priorities

- Maximise existing channels: website, email and dosha quiz
- Measure email clicks and conversions, not just open rates
- Develop the therapist community as a next step
- Deprioritise expensive new channels for now

Mauli should focus on building long-term customer relationships while reducing its dependence on paid advertising.
